

Goldilocks and the Three Bears (rap)
Sing and play again and again(with us)!
"Hey there, Goldilocks!"by Ron Brown

Hey there, Goldilocks!

I see you there in the three bears' house.
Don't you know what you're doing is such a joke!

You tried the porridge
Some was much too hot.
You tried another then you ate a lot.
Don't you know what you're doing is such a joke?

Sitting right there in the baby bear's chair
Broke it all to pieces, it went everywhere.
Tired and sleepy you went up the Hey there, Goldilocks!
... were caught by three mad bears.

Hey there, Goldilocks!

I see you there in the three bears' house.
Don't you know what you're doing is such a joke?

You learned a lesson and you won't be back.
You're never ever gonna come right back.
Forever you'll be on the right track.
Be good now, Goldilocks!
